the conduct of their manters.

It would have been supposed that an administration coming into power with such high pro-AN ions of purity upon their lips prochaming their purpose to be "Retrenchment and Reand denouncing their predecessors as guilty of all manner of corruption and extevagance, would, for the take of appearances, it from no other motive, have been especially care. ful to enforce upon their subordinate agents. strict accountability and rigid pu ctuality in paying over the public funds, which, from time to time accumulated in their hands. When Gen. Jackson came into otiice, Amos Kendall, and others, were set to work to endeavor to find out something by which to sustain and justily the charge of corruption that had been so loudly mude. At leng h, a solitary case, that of poor Tobias Watking, was found, wherein an officeholder under the then late administration, had appropriated a portion of funds in his hands, to his own private use. Immediately on this discovery, the cry was set up of "dreadful corrup-tion.! our charges proved!" and the culprit was soized, indicted, found guilty, and imprisaned in a cell, over which was written in large characters, by order of the President, " CRIM-INAL APARTMENT." The amount of Dr. Watkins' defalcation was $3,050; and he was kept in fall by the Fresident for this, three years and six months. The people of the U. States were dreadfully scandalized by this case of corruption, and were more than ever disposed to believe that all that had been charged was true Rul if they were thus shorted at the single.

The Packet Ship Geo. Washington arrived at New York Monday affernoon, bringing Liverpool dates to 31st March. The Steamer Liverpoul which sailed from New York March 9th arrived at Livernool 25th.

Regret is expressed by the Liverpool papers that she carried out thothing decisive from the frontiers", but a confident hope was maintained that all would end well.

In the House of Lords, on the 27th March Lord Palmerston said "there was no reason to expect that the friendly communications between England and America would be interrupted."

Lord Brougham had said previously (on the 26th) that "he hoped the powerful necessity of a-war-with America, would be avoided. - He would not counsel the Government, nor would their Lordships sanction any course contrary to the public honor: but, no apprehension need be entertained that it would be derogatory to the erienal honor to conceile as much expresible for the mainten; noe of the mestimable blessings of peace. This was the principle upon which the Government ought to act in every case, and above all, in sespect to the unkappy differences case of Walkins, what must they think when be ween this country and America. And he added. Where is one consolation on this subject, which is, that we are underiably, clearly, and manifestly in the wrong and giving up when we are in the wiong, never can harif

This fact confirms the supposition that the armament of Gen. Urrea was directed against Vera Cruz."

FATAL DUEL. On the 26th ult. a duel was fought in Norfolk county, near the North Caroline line, between L. Jones of N. Carolina and H. W. Wilson of New-York. They fought with pistols, at six paces. At the first fire, Mr. Wilson was shot through the body, and died on the spot. His ball grazed his adversary's temple.

The lowing anecdote as indicative of the shrewdness of Mr. Secretary Woodbury the "able financier."

> "An intelligent French Broker, Mr D. some time since, discovered that a fraud had been committed on the Revenue Department to the amount of about thirteen thousand dollars. He proceeded to Washington, stated the east to the Secretary, and made an arrangement to collect prevented by prejudice, might deduce the by their needle. Mr. Woodbury, in his great caution for the security of the Government, insisted that the District Attorney (Mr. Price) > about he employed as counsel. To this part of the arrangement the Broker reluctantly assented. A few days before the departure of Mr Price, for England, he actually collected the amount, but in the confusion of the moment forgot to leave any part of the money behind. Mr. D. now calls on the Sacretary of the Treesury for $6,500, his share of the recovery, and the Secretary refers him to Congress for an appropriation, to make good his contract. Thus, by this operation, the loss of $13,000 is increased to NINECEEN THOUSAND FIVE HUND RED, if the Government acts justly."

"Just as the twig is bent The tree's inclin d.'

The other day I held a colloquy on this very subject with one of my boys a little fellow, full of sprightliness and ambition. Father," said he, what trade am I to learn? "A lady's shoema-ker, my son." "A what?" said the little uschshoemaker? Why what is the use of my learn ing English, and French, and Spanish, gram-mer and the globes, arithmetic, and dancing, and playing on the fiddle, and composition, and elucution; and riding on horseback, it i'm only to be a fady's shoemaker? "Precisely so, my 'I perceive' returned Jenking, 'that you have son when you have finished your education. you shall learn to be a lady's shoemaker, when you have served out your time I will send you to Paris or Madrid, for a year or so, to finish your trade with the very first musters there they make beautiful shoes then you shall have a store in Broadway, a small capital will set you up in business, and do you not think that the ladies of the city would prefer a well educated gentlemanly young man, with good address institutions, by boding placed without the reach fure of their deliate feet, than a greasy, rough of investigation and amendment, naturally in looking, rude fellow, with his fingers all over your fortune soon made. After all said, much depends on the good counsel of mothers in laying the foundation for a sound superstructure in the minus of their sons. - I et a widow left only, in moderate sircumstances, have four intelligent, well educated bays, who have honorably and successfully served out their times in some mechanical bust ness, and see how much more comfortable are her prospects in old age, than if she had four

This reasoning partially applies to daughters, who are by far less troublesome and difficult to manage than sons. It is incredible how many avenues to comfort and employments are opened to girls, if they are industriously dispored There are three young ladies, daughters of a respectable but moderately circumstanced family, remarkable for neatness of dress and a reserved manner, attributed by many to pride Calling in at rather an unusual visiting hour, I found the mether and daughters employed in making muslin shirts, for which they reseived only a shilling a piece, and they frankly inform independence. -N. The mental feelings and seen and Morigage and recorded book 42, page and pecultar frain of ideas that havil the imagination and overwhelm the judgment, exhibit an infinite notice; that the condition of said Mortgage has been diversity. The wisest and best of men are as open diversity. The wisest and best of men are as open to this affliction as the weakest.

CAUSES. A sedentary life of any kind, especially severe study, protracted to a late hour in the night, and rarely relieved by social intercourse, or exercise; a dissolute habit, great excess in eating and drinking, the immoderate use of mercury, violent purgatives, the suppression of some lightfual discharge, or long continued eruption; relexation or debility of one or more important organs within abdomen, is frequent cause.

THEATMENT The principal objects of treatment are, to remove indigestion, to strengthen the body, and to eliven the spirits, which may be promoted by exercise, early hours, regular meals and pleasant conversation. The bowels (if costive) being carefully regulated by the occasional use of a mild aperient. We know nothing better calculated to obtain this end, than Dr. Wm. Evans' Aperient Pills-heing mild and certain in their operation. The bowels being once cleansed, his inestimable Camomile Pills, (which are tonic, anondyne, & anti-spasmodic) are an infallible remedy, without dispute have proved a great blessing to the numerous public.

Some physicians have recommeded a free use of mercury-but it should not be resorted to; as it many cases it will greatly aggravate symptoms. Sold wholesale and retail by E. F. DUREN, Bookseller,
